

SWAPNIL KHADSE CORPORATE TRAINER

HELLO, THERE!

Swapnil is a Life Skills Trainer, Counselor & practitioner using multiple improvement philosophies, tools, and techniques.

He is a dynamic enthusiast and a sportsman who started his career in training at a very early age. His path to becoming a corporate Trainer started with Krishna Group where his services led him to become a Principal Trainer for facilitating many customized corporate training.

His approach involves working closely with an organization to understand its specific training needs to offer winning training solutions. His style is simple and highly personalized. The training technique is entirely focused on Experiential Learning using Group & Individual Activities, Case Studies, Role Plays, Adult Learning Principles, and Thought & Introspection sessions. This quality allows him to add a different dimension to the workshops he conducts.

He has extensive experience in Consulting and Training across various industries in India, including Manufacturing Industries, Automobiles, FMCG, Retail, Information Technology, Engineering, and Institutes of Education.

His recent achievement is, he addressed 20,000 people in an open motivational talk. He has conducted more than 400 training programs across PAN India.

He is a well-known cricketer of the state and a mentor for meditation. A trekker who inspired youths to accept challenges in life by successfully conducting trekking in different parts of the Western Ghats.

Swapnil's thoughts about learning

"There are learnings all around you, it's just how consciously you observe them in this majestic world that defines what you learned and what you skipped!"
